

Armchair
Eskil Sundahl
1930

Ref. 1010364

Designed in 1930.
Chrome-plated tubular steel, padded seat original red leather. The chairs were originally placed in "KF-Sko", a shoe shop in a bold functionalist building designed by architect Eric Rockström.

Eskil Sundahl (1890-1974) was a Swedish functionalist architect and co-author of the Manifesto "Acceptera". He was Professor of Building Construction at the Technical University, Stockholm, and he designed the interiors of a number of "Coop Stores".

Produced by Kooperativa Förbundet

H.70cm/27.6" W.57cm/22.4" D.54cm/21.3"
Seat height 45cm/17.7" Arm height 68cm/26.8"

Jackson Design
Sibyllegatan 53
SE-114 43 Stockholm

info@jacksons.se
jacksons.se