

Unique Desk
Johan Rohde
1900

Lemon wood with inlaid ebony. Carved details.

Ref. 2109025

Designed and made between 1900-1905. This desk was a special commission for Dr. Hugo Halberstadt, who was a collector of Japanese objects. Applying his skills to all aspects of the applied arts, Rohde became one of Georg Jensen's most famous silver designers.

Provenance:

Commissioned by Dr. Hugo Halberstadt

Literature:

Mirjam Gelger - Jorgensen and Kirsten Lading Bidsted, et al., 'Herculanum paa sjaelland; Klassicisme og nyantik i dansk mobiltradition', Copenhagen, 1988, p. 263 fig 267 for a similar example
Gertrud Oelsener and Gertrud Hvidberg-Hansen: Johan Rohde 1856 - 1935. 'ARS UNA: solo, mobler, bogkunst, maleri', Odesen, 2006, illustrated p. 116 fig. 45

Produced by Larsen brothers

H.78.5cm/30.9" W.132.5cm/52.2" D.- 52.5cm/20.7"

Jackson Design
Sibyllegatan 53
SE-114 43 Stockholm

info@jacksons.se
jacksons.se