

Folding Screen
Einar Nerman
1920

Oil on canvas, wooden frame. Three-part folding screen with animals and figures. Signed Einar Nerman. Adjustable size. Each part of the fold is 45,5cm/17,9"

Einar Nerman (1888-1983) was a Swedish illustrator and artist. He studied at the "Konstnärsförbundet" in Stockholm and later at the Académie Colarossi in Paris. Nerman studied together with Henri Matisse from 1909-1910. In the 1920s, Nerman lived in London and worked for the magazine The Tatler, gaining fame for his outstanding caricatures.

H.172cm/67.7" W.136.5cm/53.7"

Ref. 7817

Jackson Design
Sibyllegatan 53
SE-114 43 Stockholm

info@jacksons.se
jacksons.se